

JOIN US AT LONDON CLIMATE ACTION WEEK 2026

AMAZON
SACRED
HEADWATERS

DELEGATION TO LONDON CLIMATE ACTION WEEK 21 to 28 June 2026

The Amazon Sacred Headwaters Alliance will be participating in London Climate Action Week.
Here are some of the public events where you can find us.

World Rainforest Day & London Climate Action Week Demonstration

Monday, June 22 | 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. | Parliament Square Gardens - Directly in front of Parliament and Big Ben | RSVP

Co-hosts: Cool Earth, the NGO Forest Coalition, and GATC

To mark the opening of London Climate Action Week, Indigenous representatives and members of the UK NGO Forest Coalition will gather in a peaceful demonstration calling for stronger Indigenous rights, greater protection of tropical forests, and increased direct climate finance for Indigenous Peoples and Local Communities.

P.E.A. Awards Day Summit: The Amazon Panel

Monday, June 22 | 3:00 p.m. | One Marylebone Road, NW1 4AQ | Register

Host: People Environment Achievement

Join Tony Juniper (Chair of Natural England) and Domingo Peas and Atossa Soltani (ASHA) for a panel discussion at this daytime prelude to the P.E.A. Awards Gala. This Awards Day Summit brings together innovators, activists, and thought leaders to exchange ideas, challenge conventional thinking, and inspire action on today's most pressing environmental challenges.

P.E.A. Awards: Awards Ceremony

Monday, June 22 | 6:00 p.m. | One Marylebone Road, NW1 4AQ | Get tickets

Host: People Environment Achievement

The P.E.A. Awards are the UK's leading sustainability and climate awards, recognizing outstanding individuals, organizations, and businesses creating positive environmental impact. Held during London Climate Action Week, we'll celebrate innovators advancing solutions for people and the planet.

Welcome Evening: The Rights and Nature Hub

Monday, June 22 | 6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. | The Stables, MYO King's Cross, 2 Trematon Walk, N1 9FN | See full Schedule

Hosts: Synchronicity Earth, Tenure Facility, Forests People Climate, Jacobs Futura Foundation

A gathering to kick off the week, connect our networks, and build solidarity among movements, funders, Indigenous Peoples, local communities, youth leaders, and allies. The Rights and Nature Hub serves as a collaborative space for meetings, discussions, and action-oriented sessions focused on increasing support and funding for the protection of ecosystems and addressing deforestation, biodiversity loss, and climate change.

Amazon Voices: Indigenous Leadership for Global Forest Protection

Monday, June 22 | 6:45 p.m. Reception 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Panel | Old Theatre, LSE | Register

Hosts: Grantham Research Institute, The Global School of Sustainability at LSE, Conservation International, Amazon Sacred Headwaters Alliance, Tenure Facility, TEDxAmazônia, Amazon Watch, Concertation for the Amazon

A high-level panel featuring Marina Silva (Brazil's minister of environment) and indigenous leaders Sônia Guajajara, Helena Gualinga, and Uyunkar Domingo Peas and Nonette Royo, on the role of Indigenous knowledge, territorial stewardship, bioeconomy models, and innovative finance in advancing climate solutions and protecting forests.

Moving Upstream: Grassroots Lessons on How to Save the Planet

Wednesday, June 24 | 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m | Yangtze Lecture Theatre, CBG 2.01, Centre Building, LSE | Request Invitation

Hosts: Daughters For Earth, Atlantic Fellows for Social and Economic Equity @ LSE

An expert-led, people-centered roundtable exploring frontline and women-led solutions to the climate and nature crises. The discussion will focus on the actions needed to shift power, mobilize resources, and accelerate transformative change for communities and ecosystems. Speakers: Dr. Naila Kabeer (Chair), Zainab Salbi (Daughters for Earth), Amanda Segnini (AFSEE), Georgia Nicolau (AFSEE), and Atossa Soltani (Amazon Sacred Headwaters Alliance).

Seekers: The Immortal Forest Special Screening & Panel with Filmmakers and Indigenous Leaders

Wednesday, June 24 | 7:00 p.m. | Ladbroke Hall | Register

Hosts: Seekers, Unity4Impact, and ASHA

Join us for a special screening of The Immortal Forest, an episode of the Seekers™ 6-part docuseries filmed in the Amazon, followed by a conversation with the creators and Amazonian Indigenous leaders. The film and the panel discussion offer an opportunity to reflect on transformative stories, Indigenous wisdom, and lessons from the rainforest that speak to the challenges of our time and the future we hope to create. Speakers: Gio Israel (Director of Seekers), Jennifer Schwab (Unity4Impact), Uyunkar Domingo Peas (Amazon Sacred Headwaters Alliance).

For more information on LCAW events, please visit: <https://londonclimateactionweek.org/>

The Amazon is coming to London Climate Week!

We are thrilled to share that the Amazon Sacred Headwaters Alliance will be participating in London Climate Action Week 2026 (June 21-28), bringing to the global stage the voices, knowledge, and leadership of more than 30 Indigenous nations from the heart of the Amazon.

Throughout the week, ASHA's delegation will champion Indigenous-led solutions for protecting the Amazon and our shared future, including Life Zones free from extractive industries, a just ecological transition, direct access to climate finance, recognition of the Rights of Nature, and stronger protections for frontline forest defenders. As threats to the Amazon reach a critical tipping point, the need for bold and immediate action has never been greater.

Meet ASHA's delegation.

AMAZON SACRED HEADWATERS ALLIANCE DELEGATION

Uyunkar Domingo
Peas Nampichkai

President, Amazon Sacred Headwaters Alliance

Uyunkar Domingo Peas Nampichkai is an Achuar leader from Ecuador with more than 30 years of leadership within the Indigenous movement. He is President of the Board of the Amazon Sacred Headwaters Alliance (ASHA), co-founder of the Living School of the Amazon (EVA), and has held key leadership positions with the Achuar Nation of Ecuador (NAE), the Confederation of Indigenous Nationalities of the Ecuadorian Amazon (CONFENIAE), and the Achuar binational organization COBNAEP. Under his leadership, ASHA has gained international recognition, receiving the 2024 Schwab Social Innovation Award, the 2024 Keeling Curve Prize, and recognition as an Earthshot Prize 2024 Finalist. In 2025, Domingo was awarded the WIN WIN Gothenburg Sustainability Award for his visionary leadership in Indigenous-led conservation and environmental stewardship.

Executive Director, Amazon Sacred Headwaters Alliance

Zenaida Anabel Yasacama, from the Kichwa community of Pakayaku in Ecuador's Amazon region, is an Indigenous leader with a distinguished record in defending Indigenous rights, human rights, and rights of nature. She currently serves as Executive Director of the Amazon Sacred Headwaters Alliance, advancing a bioregional vision to protect 35 million hectares across Ecuador and Peru. Trained in Economics at the University of Camagüey, Cuba, Zenaida began her leadership journey in her community, serving two terms as President of Pakayaku and coordinating life plans for the Kichwa nationality. From 2022 to 2025, she became the first woman to serve as Vice President of CONAIE, Ecuador's national Indigenous organization, helping break barriers within the Indigenous movement. She has also played a leading role in territorial defense against mining and oil expansion and in the nationwide public mobilizations of 2021 and 2022.

Zenaida Anabel
Yasacama

Fanny Kuiru
Castro

General Coordinator of the Coordinator of Indigenous Organizations of the Amazon River Basin (COICA)

Fanny Kuiru is a Uitoto leader from the Jitomagaro clan in the Colombian Amazon. She is a lawyer and the first Indigenous woman from her community to earn a master's degree in Political and International Studies. Today, she serves as the General Coordinator of the Coordinator of Indigenous Organizations of the Amazon River Basin (COICA), becoming the first woman to lead the organization in its 40-year history.

She played a key role in securing legal title to six million hectares of the Predio Putumayo Indigenous Territory and has been recognized among the 100 most influential Latinas advancing climate action, as well as one of 21 leaders changing the world. Through her leadership, she champions Indigenous peoples' voices on the global stage, strengthens women's leadership, and promotes a new vision for Indigenous economies.

Atossa Soltani

Director of Global Strategy, Amazon Sacred Headwaters Alliance

Atossa Soltani is the Director of Global Strategy for the Amazon Sacred Headwaters Alliance. She is also the Founder and board President of Amazon Watch and served as the organisation's first executive director for 18 years. Atossa was named the Hillary Institute's 2013 Global Laureate for Climate Leadership. Atossa is also a member and contributing author to the Science Panel for the Amazon and a board member for the Coalition for Ecological Civilization. In response to the Amazon fires in 2019, Atossa helped co-found Artists for Amazonia to catalyze global action for the Amazon. Atossa served as a judge for the XPRIZE Rainforest competition for novel technologies that can expedite the monitoring of tropical biodiversity.

For interviews and speaker invitations: Daniela Hoyos at daniela@sacredheadwaters.org and Atossa Soltani atossa@sacredheadwaters.org.

